

Arts & Culture Newsletter

WHAT'S IN THIS ISSUE:

- Comedy Workshop
- Oral Communication Workshops
- Talent Show
- Georgia Tech Glee Club
- Auditions for Rock of Ages

COMEDY WORKSHOP

with Brian Gallagher

Brian Gallagher is a critically acclaimed stand-up comedian, writer, podcast producer, corporate trainer, workshop facilitator & public speaker. Brian came to our senior cycle students and worked with them on creating comedic material for stand-up performance.

Reimagining our Library

TY undertook a project to create a mural in our Library to inspire our students to lose themselves within the pages of a book

"You can't use up creativity. The more you use, the more you have."

— Maya Angelou

Oral Communication Workshops

Shane McDonogh and Lisa Bennett-Quaid facilitated a series of Oral Communication Workshops with second years to prepare them for their CBA 1 in English.

Performance at Milford Hospice

Our school choir and orchestra played at Milford Hospice as part of our initiative to reach out to our community.

April - May 2022

ARTS & CULTURE NEWSLETTER

Georgia Tech Glee Club

We were very excited that the Georgia Tech Glee Club Choral Group from Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, Georgia USA performed for us at our school on Thursday 12th May

Our school choir and orchestra performing for the visitors

Culture Club Day Out

CCC's Culture Club on their day trip to Lahinch

April - May 2022

ARTS & CULTURE NEWSLETTER

Culture Club Talent Show

Culture Club hosted a talent show
Wednesday May 4th showcasing our students many creative endeavours

Film, Drama and Chess Clubs

A big thank you to the students who took part in our clubs this year

April - May 2022

ARTS & CULTURE NEWSLETTER

TY Cultural and Historical Walking Tour

TY took part in a cultural and historical walking tour of Medieval and Georgian Limerick. Students went to visit many historical landmarks in our lovely city including King John's Castle, St Munchin's Church and The Georgian House.

September Auditions

January 2023, CCC will perform the Juke Box Hit Musical- Rock of Ages- at the Lime Tree Theatre. Auditions are open to all students from every year group and will be held in September

A huge thank you to the teachers and staff who made this year so much fun with a special thank you to Cathal Duggan for chess club, Roisin Lavery for choir and orchestra and Cayleigh Dunworth for our culture clubs. Looking forward to the next Academic year for more exciting events and activities.

That's all for now everyone – we wish you a relaxing and fun filled Summer break.

